Accessibility

We try to ensure that our website is as accessible as possible to people who have disabilities or physical impairments.

We are satisfied that our website is usable with a broad range of operating systems, browsers, and specialist assistive technologies.

As a standard, we employ the following methods to ensure our site is accessible to as many people as possible:

- We are committed to Plain English in all our written content.
- The website can be navigated without the use of a mouse.
- A non-serif font is used for easier readability.

If there is an instance when our site does not meet the need of a specific user group we will do what we can to make changes to our current content, wherever appropriate, so that we can become more inclusive to a wider audience. Please contact us if this is the case.

Adjusting your text size

A simple way of adjusting website text size in most browsers is as follows:

Zoom the text size in and out by using Ctrl & '+' and Ctrl & '-'.
